Legal requirements for marriage in DR

- Original or certified copies of your apostilled birth certificates
- Original of Single Status Affidavit, notarized at your place of residency
- Copy of valid passport (bride and groom)
- Original or certified copy of divorce decree or death certificate
- Copy of witnesses passports (not family members)

All required documents must be translated into Spanish and duly legalized.*

NOTES

- If parent's names are not shown on the birth certificates, please indicate them in your Single Status Affidavits.
- If name has change after birth certificate, a formal document of this name change should be submitted.
- You should obtain an apostille for the Notary's signature on each form.
- Please note that under Dominican law, women who have recently been divorced must wait a minimum of nine months after the finalization of their divorce before they can remarry.

Please do not have your documents dated earlier than three months before the wedding. Most legal documents have a limited validity. Apostilled birth certificates and, if applicable, divorce decrees, do not expire. Those can be obtained at anytime.

You do not need to obtain a Marriage License in the USA, all weddings officiated in the Dominican Republic are legal and valid worldwide. The apostille on your official documents is mandatory for your wedding in the Dominican Republic as we are members of the La Hague Convention. Please have your official documents apostilled by your Secretary of State Office / Foreign Affairs Ministry / Foreign Commonwealth Office.

For a fast, affordable and reliable service you can contact Mrs. Isabel Gonzalez at "WE DO". This company will take care of translations and required legalization of your wedding documents.
